

CHARTER OF OUTOKUMPU OYJ'S SHAREHOLDERS' NOMINATION BOARD

1 Purpose the Nomination Board

Outokumpu Oyj's (the "Company") Shareholders' Nomination Board is a body of the Company's shareholders, responsible for preparing annually proposals to the Annual General Meeting for the election and remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and ensuring that the Board of Directors and its members embody a sufficient level of knowledge and experience for the needs of the Company.

In its work, the Nomination Board shall comply with legislation and the Finnish Corporate Governance Code in force.

The Charter regulates the nomination and composition of the Nomination Board as well as defines the tasks and duties of the Nomination Board.

2 Nomination and Composition of the Nomination Board Members

The Nomination Board consists of five (5) members, four of which represent the Company's four largest shareholders who, on October 1 preceding the next Annual General Meeting, hold the largest number of votes calculated of all shares in the Company. The Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors shall, as an expert member, be the fifth member of the Nomination Board.

The largest shareholders of the Company on October 1 are determined on the basis of the shareholders' register of the Company held by Euroclear Finland Ltd. Pursuant to this shareholding, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall request the four largest shareholders of the Company each to nominate one member to the Nomination Board. In case two of these four shareholders own an equal number of shares and votes and the representatives of both such shareholders cannot be appointed to the Nomination Board, the decision shall be made by drawing lots. Holdings by a shareholder, who under the Finnish Securities Market Act has the obligation to disclose changes in shareholdings (flagging obligation) that are divided into several funds or registers will be summed up when calculating the share of all the voting rights, provided that the shareholder presents a written request to that effect to the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors no later than on September 30 preceding the Annual General Meeting. Should a shareholder not wish to use its nomination right, the right transfers to the next largest shareholder who would otherwise not have a nomination right.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors convenes the first meeting of the Nomination Board and the Nomination Board shall elect a chairman from among its members at the notice of which the Nomination Board convenes thereafter.

The Nomination Board has been established for an indefinite period. The term of office of the members of the Nomination Board expires at the closing of the next Annual General Meeting following the appointment.

The appointed representative of a shareholder shall resign from the Nomination Board, if such shareholder transfers more than half of its shareholding, and as result no longer figures amongst the Company's ten largest shareholders. The Nomination Board may appoint a new member to the Nomination Board to replace the prematurely vacated seat and shall decide on appointing new members in case the number of Nomination Board members decreases to less than three during the members' term of office. The Nomination Board shall offer the vacant seats that are to be filled to the shareholders of the Company (in the order of shareholders' number of votes calculated of all shares in the Company) who do not have a member appointed to the Nomination Board.
